1 Purpose of this Policy

Coronado Global Resources Inc. (Coronado, or the Company) acknowledges that responsible environmental stewardship is a critical component of our business.

The Company is fully committed to monitoring and managing the environmental impacts of our activities to ensure a sustainable environmental future for the communities in which we operate, including after our operations cease.

In doing so, the Company recognises the importance of consultation and ongoing promotion of environmental awareness and individual commitment and responsibility to sound environmental practices on the part of all people involved in our operations, including contractors and other business partners. The purpose of this Policy is to ensure the Company's commitment to achieving these objectives matters is monitored and measured.

2 Scope and Responsibility

This Policy applies to all Coronado Global Resources Inc. employees, directors and officers of the Company who must comply with all policies, procedures and practices relevant to this Policy at all Coronado locations. The Custodian of this Policy is the Chief People and Sustainability Officer.

3 Policy

To achieve these objectives, the Company will do what is reasonably practicable to:

- Ensure that appropriate environmental practices and procedures are implemented and maintained throughout the organisation. These are to be relevant to the operational activities and to comply with all applicable statutory requirements, industry standards and guidelines;
- Integrate environmental management into all facets of our business;
- Inform and collaborate with the communities in which we operate about Coronado's activities and projects; aiming to make positive and sustainable economic, social and environmental contributions in the communities in which the Company operates;
- Manage environmental aspects on a site-specific basis to achieve planned environmental outcomes;
- Be transparent about our environmental risks and impacts; and look to opportunities to reduce emissions; by continually striving to improve overall environmental performance through considering opportunities to increase the efficient use of energy and water, to minimise waste and to reduce the Company's environmental footprint;
- Contribute to the conservation of biodiversity and to integrated approaches to land use planning through appropriate land management and ongoing rehabilitation;
- Provide relevant training, instruction and supervision to employees, contractors and other business partners and visitors on the Company's environmental practices and policies;
- Select contractors and other business partners who have environmental practices and objectives that are consistent with the Company's standards and policies;
- Ensure our employees and contractors carry out their responsibilities in accordance with this Policy.

4 Review

Performance against the objectives of this Policy will be reviewed by the Health, Safety, Environment and Community Committee, in conjunction with the Custodian. If deemed necessary, the Health, Safety, Environment and Community Committee may make recommendations to the Board that the Policy may be revised, changed or amended. A review of this Policy is planned to be undertaken by the Board at least every two years to ensure it remains relevant to the organisation and reflects current legal requirements and good environmental practice; however the Policy may be revised, changed or amended at any time by the Board.

5 Policy Breaches

Breach of policies, procedures and practices relevant to this Policy may lead to disciplinary action being taken. Any suspected breach or unethical conduct connected with the requirements of this Policy must be reported. Such a report should be made to your Leader, a member of the Human Resources teams, the Chief People and Sustainability Officer, the Chief Legal Officer; or the Group Company Secretary and Vice President Corporate Compliance, the Vice President-Assurance and Risk, or by using the Coronado Resources Reporting Line as set out in the Company's Whistleblowing Policy. No retaliatory action will be taken against anyone who makes a report on reasonable grounds of suspected illegal or unethical conduct. The Company's Whistleblowing Policy provides guidance on how to make a report and how that report will be received and investigated. Coronado, to the extent practical and consistent with local law, will keep confidential the identity of anyone making such a report.
